Brompton Academy, sponsored by the University of Kent, is seeking to find an enthusiastic, forward thinking teacher of Spanish, who has the energy, intellectual capacity and determination to join its Spanish team.

The successful candidate will be joining a small but growing MFL department. This post provides a great opportunity, and platform for the individual to grow their pedagogical practice, and develop as a leader of learning.

The successful applicant will be coming to an academy wide supportive learning environment, characterised by open management, and in the knowledge that they will enjoy the full support and care of the pragmatic (and down to earth) leadership team. We have a dynamic, innovative team of professional staff who want to make a difference to the lives, aspirations and opportunities of our young people.

The Academy is an extremely popular oversubscribed school with a current Ofsted rating of Good. The Academy also has a 400+ Adult learner education programme.

The Academy moved into brand new buildings in September 2013, with outstanding facilities, and Apple technologies for all, enabling us to enhance and support cutting edge learning strategies required for continuous improvement.

We encourage prospective candidates to come and visit the Academy to give you the opportunity to meet us and see our fantastic building and facilities. If you would like to visit the Academy before submitting your application, discuss the role or have any queries, please contact Jen Hygate, the Principal's PA on 01634 852341 or email recruitment@bromptonacademy.org.uk.
